MONITORIALS IN NEWSPAPERS. Complete descriptions of the "Three States" Press and Printing Apparatus.

At an early hour on Saturday last an informal meeting was held at the office of Col. T. L. Jones for the purpose of discussing the proposed re-organization of the Freedmen's Bureau.

A preamble and resolutions were then read by Col. Jones, commencing the Freedmen's Bureau with the Freedmen's Bureau, and the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. Anderson then arose and urged the propriety of the re-organization of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Bailey appeared at a window in the second story, apparently aware of the object and intention of the crowd below.

Mr. Bailey immediately produced a revolver, but it was wrested from his grasp by one of the bystanders.

Mr. Bailey then attempted to enter the building, but was prevented by the crowd.

ALWAYS POLICE.—Once in a while even ladies are met with who are not as polite as they should be, and occasionally they meet their match.

The Columbus train was unusually full from this city to Haran. However, a gentleman occupied the whole seat to himself, and his wife sat on the floor.

"I calculate to occupy it myself," was the reply. "Is anybody occupying it with you?"

"That makes no difference—I intend to occupy it myself." "Will you see me stand up?"

"So saying, the pleasant lady sat down, but instead of striking the seat she found herself in the lap of the lady with curls, who had suddenly moved with the intention of blocking the pleasant lady's exit."

"Very well," said the lady, "I am glad to see you so comfortable." But the lady was not the mountain of consolidated ermine which she was.

A Church Musical Excitement.—Some few months ago a committee of three Episcopal clergymen—Rev. Drs. Muhlenberg, Geor and Bedell—were appointed to deliberate on the question of church music, and select a suitable hymn book to be used as a standard in our Episcopal churches.

Fearing lest the House of Bishops might, during their session at Richmond, pass resolutions recommending the use of the proposed Tune Book for the Protestant Episcopal Church in America, a number of our city organists, including some of the first names in the profession, have sent a memorial to the House of Bishops, protesting against the work.
